

AAR Quality Assurance Auditor and Industry Conference - January 22-24, 2019

IMPROVING THE SAFETY AND PRODUCTIVITY OF RAIL TRANSPORTATION THROUGH QUALITY

The Association of American Railroads' 31st Annual Quality Assurance Conference is scheduled for: January 22 -24, 2019 at the Hilton Riverside in New Orleans, Louisiana. Open sessions are on January 22-23 and workshops on January 24.

Tentative session listed below will be presented by AAR Quality Assurance Committee members and Industry Railway Professionals:

- Root Cause Analysis Tools
- M-1003 Audit Findings and Best Practices
- Statistical Process Control/Statistical Methods
- Rail Supply Institute
- Keynote Speaker
- AAR Committee Updates
- Workshops: AWS D15 Welding Requirements, How to Write an M-1003 Quality Manual, How to Write a Quality Procedure
- 7.1 Nonconformance & M-1003 Certified Facilities

While this conference is designed as a forum for the AAR Accredited Auditors, anyone interested in the M-1003 auditing process is invited to attend this great learning event!

- Tue. & Wed., Jan 22-23 – Open to all conference attendees
- Thur., Jan. 24 – Workshops open to conference attendees
- Fri., Jan. 25 - QAC only
- Conference Cost $790
- Hotel Reservations - Hilton New Orleans Riverside
<https://book.passkey.com/go/d7f0b909>
- Special conference room rate $199

Register for the Conference Today

<https://aar.configio.com/>

Find the event and select "Add to Cart"

For additional information, please contact:

Don Guillen, Quality Assurance Committee Manager or Mark Rusovick, Quality Engineer at QA@aar.com

Association of American Railroads

